

Engaging the Next Generation

MARCH 31, 2015

Agenda

- ▶ Intro: Sara Gallagher, IdEA
- ▶ Aram Hamparian, Armenian National Committee of America
- ▶ Cleve Mesidor, The Raben Group
- ▶ Anabelle Pierre, Groupe ECHO Haiti
- ▶ Marc Alain Boucicault, Groupe ECHO Haiti
- ▶ Q&A

Aram Hamparian

Armenian National Committee of America

- ▶ Aram is the Executive Director of the Armenian National Committee of America (ANCA). ANCA is the largest and most influential Armenian American grassroots political organization. He shows a passion for encouraging Armenians abroad to engage with their country of origin.
- ▶ aram@anca.org

Cleve Mesidor

The Raben Group

- ▶ Cleve Mesidor is a Global Solutions Consultant at the Raben Group. She has over 15 years of public affairs, policy, and economic development experience. She was recently named one of MSNBC's Grio 100 and profiled by Facebook COO Sheryl Sandberg's Lean In Foundation.
- ▶ cmesidor@rabengroup.com

Anabelle Pierre

Groupe ECHO Haiti

- ▶ Anabelle has extensive experience working with Haiti-related initiatives through the Clinton Bush Haiti Fund and the Inter-American Development Bank. Currently, she is pursuing a Masters degree in Sustainable Development and International Policy with a focus on Social Innovation and Monitoring and Evaluation, from the School for International Training.
- ▶ anabellepierre@gmail.com

Marc Alain Boucicault

Groupe ECHO Haiti

- ▶ Marc Alain is a Fulbright scholar who studied economics at CTPEA, Haiti and is pursuing his masters in financial economic policy at American University in Washington, DC. As co-founder and former president of Groupe ECHO Haiti, he has been constantly valorizing the potential of youth and his love for his country.
- ▶ Marcalain.Boucicault@fulbrightmail.org

Questions?

Thanks for joining us today! To keep up with IdEA please follow us on social media & sign up to become a member.

INTERNATIONAL diaspora
ENGAGEMENT ALLIANCE

